- Be at least 18 years of age by start of course.
- Registered member of the BSA.
- Completed Youth Protection Training.
- Must attend all sessions to be certified.

All registrations must be completed using the electronic registration portal. The fees listed on the registration site are the Early Bird registration fees. A registration completed fewer than 14 days prior to the start of the school will incur a $50 late charge. No-Show and cancellations filed fewer than 14 days prior to the start of the school will incur a $100 no show/cancellation fee. The description of each section offered in the National Camping Schools is included in this brochure. Please note that some section descriptions have changed. Successful completion of these sections is dependent upon properly prepared trainees. Note: Day Camp, Aquatics Instructor-BSA, COPE and Climbing Director, and Shooting Sports have prerequisites.

Note these important changes for Aquatics and Shooting Sports: NRA Basic training as well as NRA Rifle and Shotgun instructor certifications are REQUIRED PRIOR to attendance at National Camping School. Go to the BSA shooting sports website at https://www.scouting.org/outdoor-programs/shooting-sports/ for locations and dates of the NRA Rifle and Shotgun Instructor Training classes. The Aquatics section requires a current lifeguarding certificate. A limited number of locations will be offering BSA Lifeguard prior to NCS for those needing the certification prior to attending the Aquatics section. See the National Camp School website for dates and locations. Dates, locations, and sections being offered are subject to change. For the most up to date listing, please visit the National Camp School website at https://www.scouting.org/outdoor-programs/national-camping-school/

- Present evidence of a current lifeguard certification (BSA Lifeguard, Red Cross Lifeguard, YMCA Lifeguard, Starfish Aquatics Institute StarGuard, Ellis & Associates International Lifeguard Training Program, or equivalent)

- Immediately after completion of the swimmers test, swim continuously for an additional 450 yards.
- Immediately after completion of the 450 yard swim, tread water for two minutes.

WHAT YOUR CAMPERS ARE THINKING ABOUT

YOU ARE NO DOUBT GETTING READY FOR THE 2019 CAMPING SEASON.

Let’s take a moment to consider what our campers say are important to them.

A survey was conducted asking youth who attended camp to tell us what made camp exciting to them from most important to least important.

- 71% answered the program
- 65% answered merit badges offered
- 55% answered the camp staff
- 42% answered camp-wide activities
- 34% answered food
- 32% answered facilities

When campers were asked about the biggest factor they would consider when recommending your camp to others, they answered “The camp staff”…

- Was helpful
- Made it fun
- Answered questions
- Made things easy to learn
- Was friendly

IMPLICATIONS FOR CREATING A FUN AND EXCITING OUTDOOR PROGRAM

- When asked directly, youth mentioned that the main thing that makes outdoor programs fun and exciting for them are the activities.
- It is important to design outdoor programs that provide Scouts with a variety of activities. They are especially drawn to activities they cannot do at home.
- Youth also reported that the people involved—both their friends and the staff and leaders—are important to making the outdoor experiences fun.
- Having well-trained leaders and staff is key in having an outdoor program that is fun and exciting to youth.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

It is important that a Scout learns by doing. Boys and girls join Scouting for the FUN and ADVENTURE they believe we will deliver. It is OUR GOAL to mold their character, citizenship, leadership, and fitness, NOT THEIRS. We cannot reach our goal if we don’t allow a Scout to have fun. Advancement is important in Scouting, but it is not the only way a Scout learns.

The method used to fulfill the aims of Scouting (character development, citizenship training, leadership, and mental and physical fitness) is PROGRAM. Let’s give it our best effort; a Scout deserves it.

DEVELOPMENT OF BOYS AND GIRLS

Development generally happens two ways at camp: as an individual and as part of a group. As an individual, Scouts learn through merit badge work and by being challenged in activities like the mile swim, the climbing tower, and COPE. These activities will build self-confidence through the accomplishment of goals.

Your role as a camp leader will be to give guidance to your staff to assist as the Scout earns merit badges, encouragement as they try new things, motivation to keep on schedule with goals, and understanding and counsel if things aren’t going right.

As part of a group, patrol, and troop, Scouts will learn responsibility, cooperation, and leadership. That’s a lot to ask of a young Scout, but it is also why Scout camp is such a good experience. Our roles as leaders will be to help the PATROL METHOD work. Don’t shortcut it; you will only be shortcutting a Scout's development.

An important part of a successful camp is to work through your Senior Patrol Leaders and Patrol Leaders. Your camp should conduct daily meetings with SPL’s and PL’s giving them the information to pass on to their Scouts on camp programming. Encourage your unit leadership to work through their Senior Patrol Leader and Patrol Leaders to make and carry out the plans. Include camp-wide activities that can be planned and carried out by youth leaders, with appropriate counsel and guidance. Help patrol leaders to get their patrols working smoothly. These opportunities are enjoyed by all patrol and troop members.

Good luck. Youth development may be challenging, but it is also very rewarding.

GIVE THOUGHT TO THESE CONSIDERATIONS AS YOU BEGIN PLANNING NEXT YEAR’S CAMPING PROGRAMS.
